"It is true for me...all roads do lead home. In 1971, I started my educational journey seated in a student desk in Academy Hall. I never dreamed I would one day be standing to instruct in the same classroom. Potomac State College gave me the gift of a quality education AND a wonderful career. Thanks to all of you (and those before you) for helping to make my 43-year journey so very special."

"For most of my free time over the last eleven years, I've thoroughly enjoyed watching my daughters play sports, including volleyball, basketball, softball, and soccer, and develop into respectful, independent women.

Through God's grace I was born into a close, supportive family, and through His direction I had the honor to become part of the Potomac State College community and have enjoyed working here for 25 years."
